KELLER'S THOUGHTS ON HITTING THE HALFWAY MARK THIS SEASON:

"It's hard to believe we are hitting the halfway point of the season already. Our season has been filled with so many ups and downs. More positive than negative though. We came into the season not knowing what our future would be in this series. The crew never gave up and fortunately America's Incredible Pizza Company saw what this team could do and signed on so CJM could run a full season. I feel very blessed for this opportunity. Over the course of the month or so our program has really turned a corner. I'm hoping that momentum will continue into the second half of the season."

KELLER'S THOUGHTS ON NEW HAMPSHIRE MOTOR SPEEDWAY:

"These last few years New Hampshire hasn't been very good to me and I'm hoping to change that this weekend. I'm familiar with the track and it's a place I definitely enjoy going to but I've had a string of bad luck. I'd like nothing more than for my luck to change and go down in the record books as the only driver to win multiple (NNS) races in New Hampshire."
